

Since 1984, National Parent Teacher Association has designated the first week in May as a special time to honor the people who lend their passion and skills to educating our children. Teacher Appreciation Week is

May 2nd-6th and it's the perfect time to personally thank your child's teachers for their sacrifices and support for your children throughout the year. Sometimes a simple "thanks" is all a teacher needs to feel valued.

It takes a big
heart
to help shape
little minds.
